Biography

After graduating high school, Brad attended Southern Illinois University of Edwardsville and Illinois Central College studying structural engineering and architectural design. He started his insurance career in 1984, working for a small independent agency focusing on farm products and personal lines. In 1985, he began working as commercial lines CSR and marketing specialist for a large independent insurance agency in Peoria, IL. His responsibilities included working with the E&S Markets on various risks for other agents along with producing his own book of business in multiple lines of insurance.

In 1986, Brad opened his own office in Pekin, IL working as a multi-line direct writer for Millers Mutual Insurance. He was ranked consistently as a top 10 producer with the company winning numerous sales awards. He served on the Agents Advisory Panel and was also the liaison for the field underwriter team and marketing department.

In 1996, Brad opened an office in Pekin, IL working for American Family Insurance. He produced and serviced a book of business for all lines of insurance. He won the Top Producer of the Year in his territory for Commercial Lines Insurance in 1997.

In 1998, Brad began working for the Traders Insurance Agency Corporation in Peoria, IL. His responsibilities included producing, servicing and underwriting a book of business. Brad was a consistent top producer in the agency and won numerous sales awards. In 2004, Brad became a member of the Society of Certified Insurance Counselors and obtained his CIC designation.

In August 2006, Brad accepted a position with Pekin Insurance as the Field Manager for the Northern Indiana territory. In January 2010, Brad was transferred to the Home Office as Field Manager for the Central Illinois territory and will continue to meet the company objectives and goals.

Brad enjoys golfing, boating, hunting, fishing and spending time with his wife and five children.
