Brent began his career with Pekin Insurance after obtaining his Marketing degree from Illinois State University. In January of 1996, Brent started as a Sales Trainee at the Home Office. While in the Home Office, he was responsible for developing and administering educational and sales courses for the Training Department. He was involved in the development of "Rookie" classes for new agents in the personal lines and life and health markets. Brent earned his Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC) designation, attended several Life Underwriting Training Counsel programs and Dale Carnegie courses in his first few years with Pekin Insurance.

In 1998, Brent accepted the Field Representative position in Effingham, Illinois. Soon, Brent was promoted to Field Manager and in 2001 he was named "Field Manager of the Year". In 2002, Brent was offered the Field Manager position in Indianapolis, Indiana with a chance to get the territory moving in a new direction. Brent has continued his education by participating in Dale Carnegie courses and Dynamics of Sales seminars.

Brent resides in Danville, Indiana with his wife, Lea, and two daughters, Erica and Ella. In his free time, he enjoys hunting, fishing and time with his family.
