Biography

Pat began with Pekin Insurance in 1987 as Field Manager in northern Indiana where he was responsible for developing and managing our independent agency force. In 1992, Pat was transferred to the Champaign, Illinois service office where he holds his current position of Field Manager for the Champaign area. Pat is responsible for managing our agency force, marketing products and philosophies and maintaining mutually profitable agency-company partnerships.

Prior to his experience with Pekin Insurance, Pat worked for Indiana Insurance Company from 1981 through 1987. Pat was a Commercial Underwriter from 1981 - 1982 in Indianapolis where he received formal training at the Home Office. From 1983 - 1987, Pat was a Field Manager in Northeast Indiana working out of the Fort Wayne office.

Pat and his wife, Alane, live in Monticello, Illinois with their three sons.
