Biography

After graduating from Clinton Community College in 1979, Tom began his insurance career with Iowa Mutual Insurance Company as Territorial Sales Manager of Nebraska. In 1985, he was promoted to Branch Manager for the state of South Dakota and was responsible for managing the agency force as well as supervising the Claim and Underwriting Departments.

In 1991, Tom relocated to Eastern Iowa and joined the Prudential Insurance Company. In this position, he sold life, health, mutual funds, annuities, auto and homeowners insurance to clients in the Quad Cities area.

In 1996, Tom joined LeMars Mutual Insurance Company as a Marketing Representative and was responsible for managing the agency force in Eastern Iowa. In 1999, he was promoted to Senior Marketing Representative.

In 2002, Tom was hired by Central Insurance in DeWitt, Iowa as a multi-line independent agent where Pekin Insurance became his favorite company to place new business with.

In March 2006, Tom was hired by Pekin Insurance as a Field Manager for Northeast Iowa and Southwest Wisconsin.

Outside of insurance, Tom enjoys coaching youth basketball and baseball programs, fishing, hunting and spending time with his wife and four children.
