

WHY PRE-ARRANGE?

Attending a funeral or visitation for a friend or relative is often the experience that encourages us to pre-plan and pre-fund our own funeral arrangements.

Choosing to pre-arrange your funeral may help spare your family emotional and financial burden at the time of your death. Thinking about your own funeral today means this is the right time to make sure this responsibility does not fall on your family.

Call our funeral home today to schedule an appointment to learn more.

HAVE YOU PREPARED?

Today thousands of families will get the call no one ever wants to receive telling them they have lost a loved one. The emotional burden of this loss is a heavy load to bear, but many times we neglect to think about the financial burden of a funeral service.

Pre-arranging your funeral will help spare the financial burden from your family by locking in today's rates and ensuring that decisions are made in advance. It is never too early to start thinking about pre-arranging your funeral.

Call our funeral home today and schedule an appointment to learn more.

THANK YOU FOR VISITING

Today, thousands of families will get a call telling them a family member has passed away. If their family member pre-arranged their funeral, the family can focus on the memories and grieving their loss, not the details of planning a funeral.

Thinking about your own funeral means this is the right time to make sure this responsibility does not fall on your family.

Call our funeral home today and schedule an appointment to learn more.

Pathway® by Pekin Insurance®

TWO NAMES YOU KNOW AND TRUST

Our funeral home has partnered with Pekin Life Insurance Company as a Pathway® Agency to offer their life insurance and annuity products developed exclusively for the funeral industry. As agents for Pekin Insurance and licensed insurance producers, our funeral directors work with local families wishing to pre-arrange funerals. Once a pre-arrangement is complete and paid for, the funds paid in advance are placed in the Pekin Life Insurance Trust, as required by state law, and are available for use at the time of the funeral service.

Pekin Insurance has been in business for over a century. Our families know our funeral home, the Pekin Insurance name, and the quality they represent. For more information contact our funeral home.
